“ My dearest brother , some know you as band joe, or rockin Joe from cocoamoe, or grandpa joe,but only I know you as Joey. As kids we did it all from pop warner to high school football. We beat each other silly, afternoons with the three stooges, chasing girls from Massachusetts to the Florida keys. Crashing dads car on dumfey road,eggs on Halloween night, the rumble in Boston,that high school band,shaving your head before boot camp.... we did it all as crazy kids.

I'll always remember you included me in every thing you did and looked out for me.

Love you Joey

“ I am so saddened by the loss of my "jammin" buddy Mr. Joe Callahan. Joe, myself, and Chris spent countless hours partying and jamming over at Chris' house over the last 14 or so years. We had some pretty crazy times together....makes me smile just thinking about it. I learned so much from him. He was quite a character! He is already and forever will be missed. So fare thee well my friend....Until we jam again! Peace - Tim Dempsey

“ Joe was quick to share his love of music and life, with anyone who cared to sit down and enjoy the experience with him. He is much loved and will be greatly missed by many in the local community who shared his passion and zeal for life. Farewell on your travels brother, until we sit down to play again!

“ joe was a kind soul who loved to entertain all with his guitar. Never did we have a family occasion without either Joe's guitar or harmonica or both at the same time. One of my fond memories is in The Villages with his mom and our children and Gerri took out the carpet bag full of musical goodies and passed them out to all. My oldest Rachel was learning the guitar at the time and she and Joe played together, while the rest of us including Gerri playing her accordion, participated. The neighbors must of had a good laugh at our expense. Joe could play for hours. Give Joe either a beer or coffee with a cigarette and he was happy. Rest in Peace Joe. Love Wendy
