“ Joe was indeed a fine person. He served his immediate family, his extended family and his country with aplomb and dignity. My sister Reba (deceased) married Joe in St. Louis and together they had three children, Donna, Mary Ann and Joe Jr. Joe was a very special treasure to his children. He was their rock and fortress throughout his lifetime. When Joe and Reba were married Joe's Aunt prepared a reception at her home in South St. Louis. We (Reba's family) were all invited to this feast and met Joe's family, had such delicious food and spent a very special time at this wedding celebration. Time passes but memories like this seem to be forever.

God bless Joseph Palazzola for all his good works. He was truly a righteous person.

My heartfelt sympathy goes this moment to all those that loved Joe.
