Joyce was surrounded by the warmth of her family, who were the center of her life. She cherished every moment spent with them, filling their lives with love and laughter.

A gifted artist, Joyce found joy in the beauty of painting, capturing memories and emotions on canvas. Her creativity extended beyond the easel; she was an enthusiastic sports fan who loved playing golf and cheering on her favorite baseball teams, the St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago Cubs—forever rivals, yet a source of lively conversation and joy. Her passion for sports also encompassed football.

In addition to her artistic pursuits and love for sports, Joyce enjoyed the challenges of playing bridge and the satisfaction of completing crossword puzzles.
