“ I will never forget that smile, that laugh and the way you made me laugh. You were and still are loved by many and you will always be missed. I know you are at peace now and in time those you left behind will find comfort in that. Watch over your mother from above and shine down on her from time to time. Love you Justin.

“ Just want to thank you for your service to the United State during the Vietnam war. You are a special person to my sister, Cathy and brother-in-law, Brian. I might mention that I had a small part in introducing them to the apt. complex, and the friendship that has grown ever since. God bless you, Jimbo, and prayers to your wife, Lorrie, and children and grandchildren. Rest in God's arms today and forever.
