

Judy Kay Ruwe

November 6, 1942 - May 31, 2014

Ruwe, Judy Kay (nee Williams) was born Nov. 6, 1942 and entered into rest on May 31, 2014 at her home in St. Louis, MO. She is preceded in death by her parents, James and Mildred (nee Sanker) Williams, one sister, Cindy Meyers, and her husband, Roger Ruwe, the light of her life, who retired from the St. Louis Post Dispatch.

She is survived by her siblings; Pamela Reagan, Jay Williams, and Carol Ruwe, her niece Heather (Kevin) Scone and their children, Brennan and Madelyn, several nieces, nephews, friends and her beloved dog, Brandon. In her earlier years, Judy went to Hollywood and became a model and movie extra. She enjoyed theatre, art and fashion. Judy loved to critique movies and food. She was an avid sports fan and was especially fond of the St. Louis Cardinals. She is fondly remembered and will be dearly missed by all who knew her.

A graveside service will be held on Thursday, June 5, 2014 at 9:30 a.m. at Bellerive Gardens, 740 N. Mason Rd., Creve Coeur, MO 63141. Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society.
