“ Aunt June was a dear person; she was so fun to visit with all the cousins and Uncle Dick. We had a great time at their home, whether it was Thanksgiving or a summer barbecue. Could never figure out where she got all her energy from! I look up to her also for her practical side and strong character. She and Uncle Dick raised some cool kids as well! I know dad, her brother Fred, loved visiting as well, and was especially fond of ALL the kids. Too soon, yet I know she had a full and loving life. I miss you. Gail
