“ You Ellie and Eric were all there when my grandpa died. For the last 2 years I've been without any of you. Jason's gone Crystal and Tommy too. It's insane that the group of us who all grew up basically in that little area around Dellwood are gone. I miss you all. RIP
p.s. our Imo's is gone too

“ Daddy, well its been over four years now that you had to leave us. I miss you more than ever. Whomever said this gets easier as time goes on was so wrong. My heart still aches for you tremendously. Little William was in a car accident and the first thing I did was pick up the phone to call you. This was last month. I miss you so much and still cry and ache for you. You are still playing such a huge role in my life. I stop and think what would my daddy do. I try to make you proud each and every day. I hope I am. Until we meet again!!
Love you to the moon and stars&128536;&128536;

“ Nicholas we all miss you terribly and will never understand why you were taken from us. You know this family and we will all stick together and get through this together. Don't worry about your wife and babies .....we will take over for you and they will know their daddy and what a wonderful person you are. I'm glad god gave you to me to be my brother (tell him thanks ) :) I love you ! Judy aka your favorite sister

“ Wow what can you say. It does not seem real yet. I am sure going to miss my brother his smile and funny sense of humor good nature and always willing to help when anyone asked. Nick was doing good things with his life he had just finished college and was on the Dean"s List. Way to go Nick! and was searching for work to take care of his family! No worries now Nick we will do that for you. I love you and we will be there for Criss, Emily, Ben and Noah. The Wagners always stick together.
