“ I just wanted to say that I'm very sorry to hear of Karen's passing. I was friends with Tracy growing up and I remember staying the night several times there and going and hanging out at JeffCo while she was teaching there.

“ My heart is full of sorrow hearing about the loss of Mrs Knight. I had the honor of having her as a teacher during my high school years and remember fondly her bright smile. Karen taught me many things but the one thing that stands out is teaching me to never give up, work hard, and good things will come me way. She was so right. May the choirs of angels sing, as she enters into her earned reward for living such a good life here on earth. She is in gods arms now. May her family be comforted during this hard time, and thanks Karen for being a role model that I will never forget.

“ We are so sorry to hear about Karen but I want to tell you that you can really be proud of her. I went to Unity with her and was in all her science and math classes. I new she was going to be very successful. I was so happy when she was named Queen of the Prom. There could not have been a more deserving person. We will miss her but God had plans for Karen and we will all be with her again some day.

“ Our lives crossed at college and I am so thankful they did. So many wonderful memories and experiences that have lasted for over 45 years. Karen was truly a blessing to those around her and her zest for life was an inspiration. I will truly miss her.

“ Karen and I were best friends in high school. The year after we graduated from college we took two vacations together. One trip was to Colorado to visit where she had worked during college and the other was to Texas because I had a love for Texas. We haven't seen much of each other since then but the friendship was always there.

Karen loved her family and always said good things about them, especially her kids and grandkids. She is surely at peace in God's mighty arms. My sympathy goes out to you, Richard, and all the family. Sharon

“ Chip,

I know it has been years since we have seen each other, but I wanted to send my deepest symtathies go to you and your family. I am terribly sorry for your losses in these past months. I am really at a loss for words.... I work with someone who is friends of the Farrar family and have kept in touch with your situation. My heart truly aches for you, Nichole and both of your families. I know it must be hard to understand right now, but know that God is in control. Stay stong and keep your marriage strong during these trying times. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers daily.

“ To the family of Karen, I send my sympathy and prayers. Karen was such a great person and even though I have not seen her but a few times since graduation, I know she remained that great person throughout her life. Karen was always friendly to everyone and always had a smile on her face. We all looked up to her for her scholastic abilities. May the family be comforted in this time of grief.
