“ Mrs. Graham was one of my Mom's best friends. I have wonderful memories of her. Many years ago at Christmas time, we paid a visit at the Crompton Ct. house. Mrs. Graham was making Christmas candy. I feel like it was yesterday sitting in her kitchen listening to her and my Mom talking (a mile a minute) and laughing at everything. It was a wonderful time and one of my fondest memories. I still have the sewing kit that Mrs. Graham gave me 35 years ago when I went off to college. She was so loved and will be missed greatly!

“ My family was fortunate to share a pew at church for the past 10 years with Kay. She was always so sweet and kind to all of us. She frequently would bring a little trinket to our granddaughter and always had a beautiful smile to share with her. Even though it can be hard to sit in church quietly when you're 2, Kay always told us she loved having little ones in the pew and not to worry about our little ones' jitters. Her eyes would light up when she spoke of her own grandkids and I was fortunate to enjoy many fun conversations with her. Kay was a blessing to all of us and will be missed. No one will be able to fill your space in our hearts and our pew! God bless!

“ Kay, you really "raised the bar" on what it means to be a Loving wife and mother. The rest of us "mere mortals" will have a difficult time living up to your example! Thank you for your gentleness, grace, and wisdom. I will think of you every time I bake a dessert (which won't happen as often as you did), worry about Anna, or have a Bloody Mary! Thank you for raising such a wonderful son!!! Love always, Julie Graham

“ My name is Paul Maletich, I grew up across the street from the Graham's. Scott was/is my best friend from day one til present. Mrs. Graham/Kay was my second mother while growing up, she put up with a lot from me whenever I tried to spend the night a whole 100 feet away from my own home. I would get stomach aches, couldn't sleep without a light on, the light would be too bright, you name it, I would find a way to get sent home. My fondest memory of Kay was going on vacations with the Graham's, and have her treat me as one of her own kids. She loved me even though I ate three peanut butter sandwiches. The great thing was I didn't get home sick because I was 6 hours away from my own home instead of 100 feet. I won't say good bye because you haven't left my memories. I will say, "Thank you Kay for being my second mother, I will cherish the love you gave, and the memories I have of you." See you in Heaven!

“ One of the most vivid memories I have growing up with Grandma was our trip to the Grand Canyon. Grandpa ingrained a "love" of Willy Nelson as we woke up to it every morning in the RV and Amy discovered my fav card game, Phase 10. But as I look back it was just another reminder of how great my patient, witty, and warm-hearted Grandma was. Especially when she drove away and left my Mom, Cathy, smoking at a rest stop. 😂

“ This angel got her wings. I'm so glad for the time we had together and all the wisdom she got to share with me. While overwhelmed with sadness I know she's smiling down on us. And as I see all the beautiful flowers beginning to bloom it will forever remind me of her beautiful smile and the love we will forever share.
