“ *My dearest friend
My heart is broken and it hurts to know you are gone. We grew up together from young children to young adults. We seen each other at our best and seen each other at our worst. We struggled the addiction life together and fought to survive. The only thing is that you didn't make it and I some how did. I feel so guilty because I brought you down with me at times when I seen your parents in so much pain. I'm sorry for that. I'm sorry for not being a better Friend. No matter what just know that I always loved you and you were always my best friend. You are free now and your at peace. No more pain Kayla.*

“ Kayla had an infectious laugh. Once she caught the giggles, she couldn't stop. I loved to hear her sing. It always cracked me up that she loved to wear flip flops all year long, and I was always a little envious of those beautiful Whitlaw eyes! ...Be at peace, sweetheart.

“ Kayla... You left us too soon. I hope you know how much you were loved by everyone. I have many memories of hearing you sing and watching you grow up into a beautiful young woman. I will always remember you and miss you and I am very happy to have been part of your extended family. All my love and deepest sympathies to the Whitelaw family and the Mangan family and to all her other friends and family.
