“ It is with a heavy heart that I write this. All those years on the baseball fields keep coming to mind. How after not seeing you for such a long time, when I saw you again, you smiled from ear to ear and hugged me so tight. I saw the same sparkle in your eyes as I remember you having on those fields. Your love for your family and especially your babies was most admirable. Each time I look into the eyes of Daisy and Trenton, I will always see you. I pray for peace for your parents, brother, Dawn, Daisy and Trenton. I pray for answers and closure for all that knew and loved you. You are already missed so much by so many. Rest peacefully Keith Dale. Always in my heart.
