“ Growing up, Kelly was like a second daddy to me, Donna, a second mom, and his daughters, Michelle like an older sister, and Stephanie, my best friend. Time and distance has placed a bit of separation in all of that, but my feelings for this family remain.

You all are so loved. Kelly, I miss you so, and I envision that my own daddy was waiting for you at the gate, as you entered Heaven.

“ I first met Kelly well over 45 years ago. Since that first introduction he has always been very nice to me. And as time has past and things changed, he never did. He was super nice to me and my family. The last time we saw him he and myself and husband had such a nice and funny visit.
My thoughts and prayers go out to you Donna and family.

“ I work with Kelly at the paint co. and just wanted to say how great of a person he was and a great welder , Kelly became a very good friend to me , He like talking about hunting and fishing and his grand kids. I enjoy talking with him even after we both retired and will miss calling him now. And give all my condolences to Donna and the family
