We became acquainted through our mutual musical interest and had a few times of working together. I shared with him that I possessed a Froud Trio LP, and told me the connection he had with the group. I wish I could have known the family more.

“ *Kenny has always been a wonderful guide in my journey in the Elks and I could see what a great father and friend he was to all who knew him well. My favorite verse from the Elks service I would like to share with those who loved him most: ~ Although a natural and inevitable event, the final summons always comes to those we love with a blow that seems to crush our hearts. We think gentle thoughts, we speak tender words, we halt, we wonder, we reason, and with faith, we become reconciled as we realize that loss of life is not the end but a beginning. ~I will hold Kenny's family in my prayers and I know he will be missed.
