“ Cheryl, so sorry for your loss. I did not know about this until I was checking on some stuff for my mom. I knew this was your mom the second I seen her picture. My heart is sad for you and your family as I understand the void that is in your heart. I pray you have strength and peace.

“ My mother was a strong, some say "stubborn" and independent woman who was raised during some of the toughest times this country ever knew, "The Great Depression". She hand-picked cotton, she was only able to go to school on rainy days because there was farming to do. She raised 6 kids they very best she knew how and out lived two of them. We love you very much Mom - your time to rest is here, sleep in peace!

“ Odor Family,

I am terribly sorry to hear about this loss. We will all miss her dearly. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. She was a lovely lady. She always knew what to say to people when they were in a predicament. She helped to put a smile on everyones face. Lets lift a praside to God the Lord that she got to touch the lives of many. She was a woman of God and that made her truely beautiful. Again I am sorry to hear this trajic news may God help to put you and your family at rest with this passing of a wonderful mother, grandmother and friend.
