along with numerous extended family and friends.

Ken was a loving Husband, Father, Grandfather, Great Grandfather, Friend, and Mentor. He liked watching sports on TV, anything from Cardinals Baseball to the Daytona 500. His crafting abilities were like none other. Making reindeer for Christmas or Angles just because he liked them. He took pride in his yard, keeping it maintained, and always having the prettiest flowers. When he wasn't working outside, he was soaking up the sun. One of his hidden talents was his drawing ability. He made cartoons for his kids to look and drew portraits of his lovely bride. His laughter and kind heart will forever be with those he loved. He will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.
