Tribute Wall

“ From the Walfield Court neighborhood:

We want to express our heartfelt sympathy for the loss of your brother, uncle, and friend, Kevin. As a small cul-de-sac, we've enjoyed knowing him for over four years. He was always willing to help, and we appreciated his kindness.

Every Tuesday evening, we held gatherings where we shared meals and got to know him and Jenny better. We called it "Leftover Tuesday," and Kevin often took leftovers to share with his friends. We hope they find support in the community now that Kevin is no longer with us.

Here are some thoughts from others in our neighborhood.

Yaso Porch

"Kevin was a man of few words, quite, honest, talked louder through his hard and sincere work. He will be missed. RIP."

Siva:

"Kevin was a versatile, talented, hard working, and sincere man. It was amazing to watch him diagnose and solve problems in his job. He had to fight several obstacles recently and did so valiantly till the end. It was our privilege to have known him. Our deepest condolences his family. May his soul rest in peace.

Siva and Shyamala"

Mike:

"I have always known Kevin Lutz to be an honest, kindhearted, generous, self sacrificing, trustworthy, dear friend. Winnie and I needed some wallpaper removed when Kevin's friend Frida referred him to us. I could tell right away that Kevin could be trusted. I learned that Kevin is not only hardworking but is very smart!!! I don't believe there is any household or automotive mechanical problem that he could not fix. Many times I presented Kevin with a problem and would give him some space to think it through and he would come up with the solution.

*As months and years passed by we were blessed to meet some of Kevin's friends too. Kevin treated his friends like family. We considered it a treat when Kevin, Jennifer and others would join us for a meal together. Winnie and I love Kevin. We are so very thankful to know him. We will dearly miss him.
