“ Hi everyone, I wanted to mention, for those who will see this, that Grandma said many times, “I don’t want everyone wearing all-black at my funeral. When I die, it’s not supposed sad, because I’ve gone Home.” So, as a request from her family (and her 😊), colors would be perfect. Thank you!

“Laura was the kindest, loving person I have ever met. She never complained even though she had so many medical issues. One of my dearest memories is when my sister, Norma Jane, was in her last stages of cancer, the Tucker and Lewis family were gathered together in the hospital waiting room and Laura brought in a gallon jar of homemade chicken noodle soup! She was always comforting others when she herself was grieving. Laura, heaven is celebrating you today! Love, Janice (Tucker) Bethurem.
