“ Leon and I shared many adventures in our youth, most of them can't be shared here. one I can share is the day Leon saved my life . We were walking down old School road when we decided to explore a vacant shack. After looking around for a while I came across a big black snake, trying to catch it resulted in my getting bit. It left two teeth marks just like fangs. Wanting to have some fun, I told Leon it was a copper head and that I was getting weak.(best acting I've ever done) Thinking I was about to die Leon carried me to the road and started flagging down cars before I let him know it was just a black snake. That's how I will always remember my friend Leon. he would do just about anything to help a friend.

“ When I think of Leon, it's his warm smile and energy and curiosity about ABSOLUTELY EVERYTHING that comes to mind! Conversations were always lively and warm and would go in any direction at any time! Couldn't help but feel better after having a conversation with him. He was a natural at lifting other's spirits and will be missed!

Thank you, Marcy. Leon really was curious about absolutely everything, wasn't he? He was always reading books on all kinds of topics.

“ Leon and my mom we’re together for some time while I was a young boy. He helped me get my first dirt bike, he taught me about the Three Stooges, and how to make nachos in the microwave. Leon was also a great bowler! Later on in life we visited Leon in Destin and had the best time. He took us out on his boat and his friend and I went SCUBA diving. I’m so sad to know that he is gone. Prayers and love to his family.
