Leon was a hard working devoted family man. He adored his family and took very seriously his commitment to provide for them. In his early years he grew up on the family farm. That is where he found his love for nature. He enjoyed fishing, hunting and archery. Some may not know however that Leon was an artist. He could draw, sing and write poetry. He had a big heart and loved his family unconditionally. He could be described as a cut up at times and he enjoyed playing and entertaining his children and grandchildren. Leon was a very generous man and was a great example to many. He will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.
