“ I didn't know Lester very well. But I remember him being a big help to my parents, pastor Marvin Iliff and Rosalie. Then, him being a big help and support to my brother pastor Dan Iliff and Claudia. The last time I saw Lester was at church in mid April. Afterward a bunch of us were talking, and I reached over and gave him a side hug. so glad I did! Rest in peace Lester. We will miss you.

Sorry for the loss of your dad, rob. Me and my husband both remember him from cedar springs, he seemed to always be in a good mood!

Lester was a good friend, always willing to help when someone needed help. I'm sorry I can't attend the service, still trying to recover from the effects of shingles, but I'm sure Lester wouldn't mind. He'd say "Don't worry about it, Get some rest and get better". I'm glad he's in heaven with Grace, no longer having to worry about the cares of this world. I'll miss ya, buddy!
