“ Lisa was always bubbly and usually having a good day. She had a light of little terms and expressions I find myself now using sometimes. I miss her, as she worked with us for 7 years. I miss her smile and her enjoyment of life. Sympathy to the family who will miss this bright spot in their lives daily. Betty V.

This is so difficult for me. I have lost one of my best friends...She can never be replaced. I have known Lisa since high school. And I cannot even imagine life without her. No matter what was happening or what we were doing....Lisa was positive and happy ...fun and uplifting to be around. I will never forget her smile and all her kind words. Lisa and I have been through a lot together....high school, marriage, having kids, college, work...illnesses, becoming grandparents...know one knows my like Lisa...she knows the good, the bad and the ugly about me. And we were still friends. That is the kind of person Lisa was. She accepted me for who I was and loved me. We would just giggle and laugh about most events in our lives. Even though we lived far apart...I always felt close to her. We remained in contact and knew what was going on in each other's lives. We loved a lot of the same things....we were both avid readers and often discussed the books we read and even sent each other books. We loved the beach and our families. Lisa. I know you are with the Lord. You are the kindest person I have ever known. You never said an unkind word about anyone and never judged. I know Jesus is holding you in his arms. I wish I could have held you in my arms one more time. I have so many memories of you and I will keep them in my heart forever. Love you my dear friend.

“ I'm so sorry. Lisa's passing is a true loss. She was sweet through and through. When I moved in, she was the first person to bake me a cake and welcome me and my children. We were car pool moms driving to church choir practice and scouts. She walked the walk in being a loving person. Her family was the most important thing to her. Know she is watching over you.

“ There are no words to express the heartfelt sorrow that we feel for the passing of Lisa.

She fought a very tough fight to be present for the birth of her granddaughter Blair and to see her starting to develop. She will no doubt be continuing to look down from above.

We are a phone call away if there is anything we can do.

Love,

Nan and Dan Hoste
