“ Thinking of you, how sorrowful it must be to lose your soul mate and lifelong friend, my dear brother.

We know your heart is broken, the void will never be filled, for there is no greater sorrow than to recall a lifetime of happiness in times of such pain.

We were gifted with so many awesome, sometimes fanatical times with you and Lisa!

We will always reminisce the holidays, birthdays, the Daytona, Halloween and river parties, times that will never be forgotten!

Memories live in our minds, in pictures and in stories for eternity, our loved ones are with us forever.

May every stream you cross, hill you climb and mud hole you forge, look over and see her by your side, smiling, grimacing, laughing and sometimes screaming.

I know there is nothing we can say to ease the pain and make things better, but I just wanted to let you know we are praying for peace and comfort your entire family.

“ I am so sorry for your loss and extend my Heartfelt Sympathy to you. I had the pleasure of first meeting and working with Lisa at Scottrade. We often talked about so many things, especially about our families. Lisa was a fun-loving, sweet, and wonderful person to know. Her laughter and that wonderful smile could light up the world. She will be missed. May the reassuring love of family and friends help to ease your sorrow during this challenging time. I pray for your courage, strength, and peace in the days ahead. God Bless you all.

“ I've had the pleasure of working with Lisa a little. When I joined the team she was very welcoming. She was also, to me, easy to talk to and very down the earth. I would confide in her often and she was always a listening ear. I will miss her laugh and funny side conversations.

To her loving family I send my deepest condolences and want to thank you for sharing her with us.

“ Mike and Lisa were the first two people my husband Steve and I met when we moved to Catawissa. We lived only a few houses down and went over to their house a lot. Mike and Lisa took us in as one of their own and treated us like family - even inviting us to their family events.

They watched as we grew our family and helped watch over our kids. We became good friends and spent a great deal of time together. Steve and I have so many memories that have the Rosner family in them.

Lisa was a good hostess whenever we came over. She made sure we all had food and drink and tended to our needs - especially our children. Lisa was fun to hang around and loved to do fun things outdoors.

I will always remember her smiling face and laugh. RIP
