

Lloyd Jacobs

June 8, 1931 - June 19, 2014

Jacobs, Lloyd, was born June 8, 1931 and entered into rest on June 19, 2014 in Chesterfield, MO.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Andrew and Cora (nee Hagermann) Jacobs, his beloved wife, Jean Jacobs, four brothers and five sisters.

He is survived by two daughters, Cynthia (Mike) Glennan, of Spring Lake, NJ and Jeanna (Louis) Merkle, of Houston, TX, four grandchildren; Michelle (Brett) Sheaffer, Ryan Glennan, Evan and Molly Merkle, two great grandchildren, Delia and Willa Sheaffer, and many loving nieces and nephews.

Lloyd was one of ten children raised on a farm in Success, AR. At the age of 17, he joined the U.S. Army and served during the Korean War. After his service, he moved to St. Louis and married the love of his life, Jean. Lloyd began working on the loading docks at McDonnell Douglas and diligently worked his way up to Management where he remained until his retirement in 1992. Lloyd became an ordained Deacon in 1978 at First Baptist Church of Ferguson and later served faithfully as a member of Concord Church in South St. Louis County. Lloyd enjoyed traveling to the Caribbean, Canary Islands and around Europe with his wife. He was an avid golfer, winning a number of tournaments at Norwood Hills Country Club and aced a hole in one on two occasions. After his wife's passing he enjoyed traveling to be with his daughters, grandchildren and great grandchildren. His loving nature and witty sense of humor endeared him to everyone. Lloyd served several years as a hospice volunteer helping families coping with grief where he won awards for his work. His tenderness and caring was admired by all who had the pleasure of knowing him. Service: Memorial service will be held Wednesday, July 2, 2014 at 11:00 a.m., Oak Hill Funeral Home, 10301 Big Bend Rd., St. Louis, Mo 63122. In Lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to BJC Hospice, PO Box 957421, STL, MO 63195-7421 or at www.bjchospice.org
