Lloyd Sawyer lived a life deeply rooted in the things he loved most—family, the outdoors, and hard work. He had a true passion for fishing, boating, and hunting. Lloyd had a natural knack for fixing things and took great pride in his work, whether it was on the farm or around the home. Lloyd's greatest joy came from his family. He was a proud and devoted father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and great-great-grandfather, and his legacy of love and strength will live on through each of them. He will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.
