

Lois Ann Jenkins

January 30, 1950 - July 25, 2017

Jenkins, Lois Ann of Fenton, Missouri passed away July 25, 2017.

Loving wife of Douglas Erwin Jenkins, loving step-mother of Douglas Robert (Lee) Jenkins and Daniel Bradley (Susane) Jenkins and loving mother of Jessica Lynne (Douglas) Dewilde, dearest grandmother of Emma, Norah, Adam, Caleb, Isaac, Jack, Luke and Addison, beloved daughter of Oliver and Margaret Ethel Cromwell, sister of Oliver (Arlene) Cromwell and dear friend to many.

Lois' greatest loves were her family and Jesus, they came first. She trusted Jesus in all things and even when her disease took much away from her she accepted each day as a gift. She liked to travel and especially to a beach where she could walk on sand and feel the breeze. Anywhere whales were she wanted to go. Her job took her to many parts of the world and she enjoyed the various cultures and the many friends she made along the way. Some of her favorites were swimming and running, visiting vineyards and dinner with her husband; they enjoyed everything they could together and, of course, being with their children and grandchildren was the best!

“ We first met Lois and Doug at a fish fry at their house. The DeWilde family was invited over to meet the Jenkins family. Lois opened her home to us and made us feel welcomed and very comfortable. We were fortunate to get together many times after that at birthdays and family events. On each occasion she always had a smile and made us feel so at home. When she and Doug came to our home to inform us of her Alzheimer’s diagnosis I couldn’t believe the strength she showed. We of course shared hugs and tears but she still had that beautiful smile thru it all.
May the love Lois showed to all of us comfort us during this time.
My God continue to comfort the family.

“ I met Lois when we moved to the neighborhood in 1963. All us kids in the neighborhood used to hang out in people's basements or knotty pine rooms and listen to music or we'd hang out on the subdivision street. We used to cut through the woods in back of Lois' parents house to go to the service station on Watson Road to buy soda's. Sometimes we'd stop in the woods and smoke if anyone had cigarettes. You know all the fun crazy stuff kids did in the 60's! We all went to Affton High School together.

*I remember most her laugh and smile. She was a beautiful person.
God Bless the whole family and know that you all are in our prayers.
