and many other family and friends.

Butch was a one of a kind person who loved the outdoors and his family. He spent his free time riding bikes and fishing. Butch was known to be a real Jokester and he might even throw in a few pranks to you every now and then. Butch retired as a steel worker but just 2 short years later, his active and hardworking lifestyle brought him back to his favorite job at Farm and Home Supply. He was the kind of person that “never met a stranger”. If you weren’t friends with Butch when you met him you sure were by the time you left. Butch loved to talk to people and was so kind and caring all the time. Butch will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Funeral planning were under the supervision of Chapel Hill Mortuary. Family and friends can review and share stories, photos and condolences online at www.stlfuneral.com and follow details of this event and others in the community at www.facebook.com/stlchapelhill.

“ We were shocked to see that Butch had passed away. He was such a fun person to be around and always had a smile and a joke. He will be missed by all who knew him. We wish we would have known sooner so that we could have offered our condolences in person to the family. Know you all are in our hearts and prayers.

“ I met Butch at Marlo!! He was a great guy to work with and co worker!! He always had jokes and laughter in the work place!! But you never wanted to cross his bad side I did one time just joking around and he got mad and I learned never to that again!! I was glad to meet you Butch and work with you my friend and I know you are in better place know and you don't have to worry about any more strokes!!!!
