“ Mr Seyer...

I am so saddened to learn of your passing. I feel like I spent more time growing up in your garage than I did in my own front yard. I remember your old blue Dodge truck with the “Mack” bulldog on the hood. Even though i was the neighbor kid i learned a lot from you not having grown up with my dad in my house. You were always the go-to guy for old Coca-Cola syrup barrels! You were a great handyman and a skilled mechanic. Thank you for always bringing your tractor down the hill to snowplow my moms driveway I’m pretty sure I saw my 1st ever SuperBowl in your basement (Stupid 49’rs). Janet, Jenny and Joey so very sorry for your loss. 😭.

“ Even though I knew Lynn was my cousin from Aunt Mutt's side, I never knew him growing up. There was over 36 of us first cousins. Aunt Mutt was one of my dad's ten sisters. It wasn't until Uncle Syl's funeral, that I learned from Lynn, that he was a Marine and served once at a place I had been to several times while in Naval Intelligence, NSA Rota Spain. Marines like him guarded the intelligence world back then during the Cold War Era/Vietnam Era. My job was to deliver the intelligence off my Navy ship. Highly classified back then, but today Russians are old news. His moto was improvise, adapt and overcome. Semper Fi Marine! Rest well, your job is done here.

“ I remember all those Sundays at Lynn's home with Uncle Syl making lemon based BBQ chicken - Uncle Syl and my dad drinking old style buckets of beer. Lynn and I would hang out in the strawberry patch, the chicken coop, or go exploring in the woods behind their house - hanging with Lynn was always great fun. Then it was Aunt Mutt's homemade chocolate pie with whipped cream. Fabulous memories.

Prayers and thoughts for Lynn and Jan and your entire family during this very difficult time.

There was nothing better than celebrating grandma Huseman's birthday at uncle Syl's place as kids!! We would play ball till dark and have bbq till we were stuffed. The party also signaled the end of summer vacation from school. Lynn was always a big part of all the fun.

*Our deepest sympathy to Jan and the family.

It's been a long time since Ada & I have seen Lynn & Jan. I too remember all of the fantastic BBQ's at Uncle Syl's & Aunt Mutt's. Ada & I pulled out an old picture album and there were a couple of photos of Lynn, Jan, Uncle Syl & Aunt Mutt when they came and visited us during my military tour in Fort Walton Beach, Florida. They had been vacationing in Pensacola and came by to visit us. Great memories!

To you Jan and your family our most sincere sympathy. Our prayers and blessings go to all of you. Peace and rest for Lynn.

“ Lynn was such a presence in our family. He was a wonderful husband, father, and grandfather. He and my sister had a love for each other not unlike a fairytale. He has been taken from all of us too soon. I don't think our family will be the same without Lynn Seyer.
