“ To my lovely 1st cousin maidee: maidee, I so much love and miss you. and after all these years we found each-other again. growing up with you was simply the best maidee. maidee and i both love animals and when we were kids we used to have 10 or so stray dogs we used to hide in the basement so the landlord wouldn't find out.and she was always large in her heart and in the things she shared. My childhood was enhanced by her presence. she protected me, little pee-wee, the wild kid...even after all the years that passed and we lost contact, i felt her with me all the time. But for a decade in the 1960's, she was the closest thing to god this poor boy ever knew, and i will never forget you maidee.

To all of maidee's children , grandchildren, and other loved ones,Please accept my sincere and heartfelt love for maidee and know that i share in your loss and hurt. she is missed so much by all who knew her...

*Regards,
Benjamin f. Burns 3rd.*

“ Grandma-

There are no words worthy of describing how important you were in my life. You were without question the strongest human being I ever encountered, and I hope that I can pass to others what you gave to your family. Rest in peace, mammoo.
