“ Grandma I cannot believe your already gone.I wish there was something that could bring you back to life,cuz without you nothing around here is the same..and it's going to be so hard just move on knowing that your no longer here.Myself and everyone really is glad that you don't have any pain and suffering now.Mom went to go pick out songs for the funeral service..and I had told her to play The song by Billy Gilman that we always listened too..Well today that was the first one to play and when I heard it..it hit me hard.We had so many great memories...it's hard knowing that we won't have anymore.But I will always cherish the ones we had.Grandma,you have no idea how much you will be missed...Hopefully one day I might meet you in the gates o heaven..it would be great seeing you again.You are so greatly missed and loved..

Love Always,
