“ Aunt Marilyn, Where do I begin, I loved you deeply. As a child, I have so many fond memories of the sleep overs we would have and the shopping adventures we went on. As a young adult I was lucky enough to work with you and boy did we have some fun. Everytime we were together we would reminisce about the funny stories from those days. As an adult I respected the love that I witnessed between you and the rest of our family. Especially the love you had for Grandma and with my Mother. I have no doubt that growing up in this kind of loving environment has made me a better Mother, Daughter, Sister and Aunt. Thank you for setting such a good example. You will be missed so very much but I know today that you are in a better place walking with Jesus, Uncle Don, Grandma Fisher, Jeff and countless others that have gone on before. Rest in peace until we meet again. Love always, Leslie
