“ I had the privilege to care for Mark during dialysis. We got to spend a lot hours together during his time with us. He always made me laugh and I loved his stories!! He was sweet and genuine and a very caring person. All the nurses really enjoyed taking care of him because he was so wonderful to be around. We will all dearly miss him.

Our condolences to his family. Please know that Mark will be missed and remembered.

“ *Melissa, Mags, and Mark,
I have great memories of you all growing up on Coachman Way. Loved running into your dad on walks when we all lived there. We shared laughs and memories concerning all of you. I will remember him fondly and know he will be dearly missed as the years go by. We in the Shaw house know there are no words at a time like this, please know we share in your loss and heart ache. We are here if ever you need us. Lifting you all in prayer,
Love,
The Shaw Family: Dee, Moriah, Eli and Jordan*
