Marvin never knew a stranger and was a friend to everyone he met. He was a man of the greatest integrity. He was willing to help anyone at any time. Marvin started his firefighting career when he was just 13 in October of 1979. He worked his way through the department up to Battalion Chief and on the Honor Roll. Marvin was a faithful member of Our Lady Queen of Peace Church and a 4th Degree Knight of Columbus. He was meticulous at everything he did. He was respected in all fields he worked in. Along with his 42 years of service, he gave 30 + years to Butler Supply as line manager. He knew every serial number of everything they had. Remembering everything was just one of his superpowers. Anything that was put in front of him he could fix. Proud is just an understatement on how he felt about his girls, they were his whole world. He will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

“ Marvin, you were such a fun presence to have in the office. You were so funny, so inviting, and such a good guy. We relied on you so much for your knowledge, from being a fireman, to life knowledge (ok, I did lol when you told me my truck had a lifter tick). Unfortunately, I never met your wife or daughters, but I sure feel like I did. You bragged on them all the time!! Sports, hunting, all of it! You are the definition of a great man and I am so glad I got to meet you and work with you. I sincerely hope all your girls can find peace in the days to come. I can not imagine the pain they are in.

“ Marvin, sir, you were one-of-a-kind. We passed you on hwy nn on Oct 7th, smiled and said "that's a hell of a good man right there". Then we heard you were in the hospital just days later. It's unreal. May you rest in peace and I thank you for being you - it was a pleasure to call you a friend. Love and respect, Sandy, Mike, Mikey & Emily Smith
