“ i just came across marys obit and was very saddened to read of her passing.I have many memories of her from the years I worked at the dollar general store and at the manor she was such a happy person to be around I always loved to deliver her mail to her she so looked forward to this each day alot of times she would make me a list to take to the store an of course I would go shopping for her I will really miss visiting her when I visit my other residents now which is not very often as I live so far away now an sometimes I have to depend on someone else to drive for me. My prayers are with all of you this holiday season. Sincerely, Mary Jo Eckstein
