“ Mary was my cousin and a year older than I. As children in the summer, she would invite me to spend the week with her. It was like the city kid got to live in the country for a week!

The last summer my Dad was alive, he and Mom went to Mary and Sonny's for dinner. Daddy praised that fish dinner for months afterward and really enjoyed the visit.

To all of her family, I say, please accept my deepest sympathy on your loss. I will say prayers of healing for all of you.

“ It is with great sadness that I hear about Mary. She was a great friend, and co-worker. Her smile and fun personality will definitely be missed by all of us at the store. May her family be consoled by all the special memories they have, now and in the years to come. She is at peace now with all the angels.
