“ Awwwww. Just learned of Mary Lee's passing. Last time we visited her was during a wonderful trip back to St. Louis with my parents, Gordon and Dorothy Milby, to see Aunt Vera Milby Albaugh. Mary Lee had wanted to entertain us at her country club but the restaurant was closed for renovation.....much to her displeasure. I recall one conversation with her then when I asked her what she enjoyed doing during her days. She replied, " Anything I damn well want to do". We all roared with laughter. So like her spirit. She is with Uncle Herb now and that brings a smile to my face. ~Linda Milby Hohengarten from Seattle

“ Mary Lee was a wonderful woman and so very generous to me as I grew up into middle age. I miss her and will always treasure the memories we share. I am thankful she is no longer alone and suffering. May she rest in peace. Love you!

“ So sad to hear of Mary Lee's passing. We have many fond memories of our visits to St. Louis to see Papa Morris and Mary Lee. And their trips to see us in Nashville, IN. Mary Lee loved the shops in Brown County, and the fried cinnamon biscuits and apple butter. She even had me mail them to her from time to time. Glad we got to visit her last year in the assisted living facility in STL. Love, April and Tom Barr

I'm sad that Mary Lee is gone but she is at peace now. My fondest memory of Mary Lee is from Christmas eve 1989, her first Christmas after Papa Morris died. We sat and wrapped presents and talked about Papa for hours. I also always loved going to football and hockey games with her. Always first class...box seats or front row. Mary Lee was wonderful woman. Sincerely. Susan Barr, Ashland , Oregon

“ This is sad news for the Morris and Barr family. Mary Lee was our Papa Morris' wife (my mom, Helen Barr's, dad). I knew she wasn't doing well, but didn't realize how short her time was. Rest in peace.
