“ Sadly I recently found out about the passing of my cousin Mary Jo.

I have so many fond memories of visiting her and her husband Lou in downtown Detroit. Probably some of the happiest days of my childhood. I vividly remember playing braille board games and was so incredibly proud of her career I bragged about her often. Even with her "disability" she moved around the country and did things most ppl don't have the courage to do.

She will be missed but not forgotten.

“ Lou, Kay, & Paula,

I am very sorry to hear of the passing of MaryJo. I know your faith and family will support you during this trying time. I know too that your faith in God, and knowing that MaryJo suffers no more and stands with God, Uncle Buddy and Aunt Wilma, and is celebrating eternal life in Gods presence.

May time ease the suffering of your loss, and may your knowing that she suffers no more, and stands with Jesus, making a home for your arrival, give you some respite from your own suffering.

God bless you in your time of need.

“ To my loving sister-in-law, Mary Jo, I know the angels have taken you to Heaven. I will miss our long distance conversations on the phone. I recall cookbooks and Louis were one of our favorite things to talk about. I especially enjoyed our short visit together in St. Louis a few years ago. I know your heart will always be with Louis. You and him loved each other so much. May God's light shine upon you and Louis at this sad time. Love you always, Nancy.

“ Mary Jo, you will be missed. You were such a joy to be around. I cannot count the times you made me laugh. I will always remember your spirit about going out and seizing the day - reminding me to never pass up an opportunity to follow my dreams. Thank you for that inspiration. May you rejoice forever in the presence of our King!

Lou, may God shower you with His embracing comfort and calming peace. Mary Jo had an amazing love for you and I am sure she is bragging to God and the angels about you in heaven.
