“ Mary A. Williams

“ *I haven't lived in St. Louis in years. I am sad to see that Mary passed away. I do not ever recall Mary not having a smile on her face. She always had a smile when she saw you and never had cross words. We went to same elementary school when we were neighbors growing up on Maryland avenue in St. Louis. She was proud of all her family members and loved them deeply. One of fondest of many memories I have is when Mary was so excited when her sister came to visit and helped with a parade being organized. She bragged about her sister "Cynth Ann" and her baton talent she shared for the parade. Over the years we would run into each by chance years ago at downtown events when I was visiting the area and it was the same Mary as we ran into each other as adults with a warm welcoming smile.
