She was a hard working woman and continued to milk and farm alongside her sons, the fourth generation of Weber Dairy Farm, up until just a few short months ago. When

Melba wasn't in the milk barn, you would find her in the kitchen cooking for the boys as she loved to do. She was a devoted member of St. Martins United Church of Christ in Dittmer where she would make apple butter in the fall and ice cream in the summer. She would quilt with the ladies of the church each week. Melba's life was full of the things she loved; life, family, church and the farm. She will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved her.

“ I will always remember my first meeting with Ma Weber. In the milk barn. As Kim and I tiptoed thru cow poo for our first time (being from South County). Ma told us it wasn't going to hurt us. I am sure she will be missed by many and remember by all.

“ Melba was a pillar of the community--a hard working, kind, and caring person. I was amazed how she always remembered me and recognized everyone by voice when her sight failed her. A wonderful example of a life well-lived. I am confident she is in the glory of heaven and pray for God's peace to surround all of us as family and friends.

“ Every once in awhile you get lucky to have a customer that you develop a special attachment to and that you will never forget. For me that person was Mrs Weber. We had a routine every wednesday. Ruth Ann and Mrs Weber would come in, I would always get hugs from both, and tell Mrs Weber how gorgeous she was. She would then shake her hand at me ! After talking for a couple of minutes they would be on their way. My wednesdays will never be the same anymore. It is amazing how something so simple can touch your heart so deeply. Today we mourn the passing of our friend. Tommorrow we celebrate a life very well lived. Fly high gentle soul, your savior is waiting for you.
