“ Words can not express the sadness in our hearts at the loss of our sister/aunt. She had the biggest heart and was always willing to help us out whether it be pulling weeds in our garden or lending a hand with holiday meals. Love and miss you forever Melody!

Son, so very sorry for your loss. Melody was a very loving and caring person. We really cherished her being part of our family. But son, remember that the Bible gives us hope that we can one day see our loved ones again..love and prayers for you and the family

Having just experienced a very similar chain of events with my sister this past November, this sudden shock brings those feelings back fresh again. It's such a terrible thing to have a sudden void torn into your heart, but I hope you can fill it with memories of the good times, and of the love, and with the peace that surpasses all understanding... the hope that she is reunited now with her Creator, and that she has taken the place prepared for her by the Son of Man who sitteth at the right hand of God.
