“ I wanted to share a memory of Myke that shows what a Caring person he was.... my Granddaughter Isabella and I were taking a walk around the neighborhood as we passed by Myke's house.... Alex Courtney, and a few more of his friends were working on a vehicle like the motor heads always do.....of course we spoke, he never failed to wave or say hi.....I got back to our driveway just ahead of Isabella when she let out a scream that would curl your hair....SNAKE! SNAKE! HELP! When I saw Myke and Alex running like the wind to her....he thought she had been bit....He gave her a sense of protection that she would be alright he would rescue her. She still talks about that guy who came a running to help her. I was So Thankful for such a good young man to be our Neighbor. When he showed Isabella and I the stump he was carving to make a chair to look out at the river she wanted so bad to sit on that stump.....I know he was an Angel on Earth.

God Bless his Parents and Comfort them in this time.
