

Michael J Obermoeller

November 5, 1944 - February 5, 2022

Michael J. Obermoeller, age 77, passed away peacefully at his home in Byrnes Mill, MO surrounded by his family on Saturday, February 5, 2022. He was born on November 5, 1944 in St. Louis, Missouri to Harry and Agnes (nee Berndsen) Obermoeller. He is preceded death by his parents, and his son John.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 54 years, Joan, children Tim (Crista), Tom (Amy, fiancée), and Carrie (Jeff) Catalano. Cherished grandfather of Trent and Blake Obermoeller, Tyler and Brandon Catalano, Clara Weston, two sisters, Barbara (the late Russell) Pautler and Bonni (Dan) Gogel and many nieces, nephews and friends.

Mike was employed by various engineering companies, retiring from ITW Signode Corporation after 24 years as a Service Engineer. On April 1, 1967, he married Joan L. Stobie. Together, they had four children. Mike and Joan enjoyed spending time with friends and family, always cheering at their four grandsons' sports activities. Mike's special interests and hobbies included raising a family, hunting, fishing, and boating. Some of his favorite times out and about were to watch his grandchildren play hockey, football, soccer, tennis, swimming and diving. He also enjoyed being outdoors, traveling to the lake, and having breakfast at local diners with friends. Mike will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

A Celebration of Life will be held March 6th 2022 from 12:00pm - 4:00pm at Tapawingo National Golf Club, 13001 Gary Player Dr, St. Louis, MO 63127.
