“ The Borrini's, have always held such a special place, within the hearts of my family. And I am absolutely saddened by the news of Millie's passing. My heart aches for the family and my heartfelt and sincere condolences goes out to them all. I pray that the grace of God may embrace them and be their guiding light through this time of darkness.

They say that everyone has a friend during each stage of their life, but only the lucky ones have the same friend during all stages of their life. My Mother was so lucky to have just that, with Millie. Their lifelong friendship was that for which to be admired. Always there, with no agenda other than the friendship itself. She was a true friend and her presence will be sorely missed. May God be with the Borrini family.
