

Milton "Doc" Brian Jacobsmeyer

September 22, 1938 - April 19, 2019

Jacobsmeyer, Milton "Doc" Brian suffered a stroke Dec 30, went to St. Clair Hospital, then Mercy Hospital South Acute Rehab, then Big River Nursing and Rehab Home Jan 25, and expired on Good Friday April 19. He was born Sept 22, 1938 to Milton Edward Jacobsmeyer and Marie nee Izo and later had step-father Anthony Bernich. He is survived by his wife of 40 years, Marilyn nee West; siblings Michael Anthony Bernich, Doug Edward Jacobsmeyer, Wayne Emmett Jacobsmeyer, Suzanne Louise (Jacobsmeyer) Mueller, and Roxanne (Jacobsmeyer) Sanderson; daughters Linda Marie (Jacobsmeyer) Devey and Deborah Ann (Jacobsmeyer) Fair; sons Mark Walter Hauschild and Matthew Richard Hauschild; 11 grandchildren; 28 great grandchildren.

As a young man, Brian was a member of the Naval Air Reserves and worked at McDonnell Douglas, starting on the shop floor and advancing to the position of inspector, completed his Bachelors degree in business at Washington University, organized the records system for the early space projects, and had office jobs including buyer. At age 40, Brian went back to school for more science classes and then attended and graduated from Logan College of Chiropractic. Doc then opened up his first Bri-Lyn Chiropractic office in Florissant, though the family moved to House Springs and for awhile had Bri-Lyn Cattery and showed Persians in many cat shows. Doc later moved his office to House Springs, initially next to the Price Chopper grocery store and then to 4027 Gravois where he also opened a small general store – first called Kathy's Kountry Store and then Doc's Country Store. Doc finally retired several years ago.
