

Myrtle May "Mickey" Weber

October 25, 1924 - April 7, 2020

Myrtle (Mickey) Weber passed quietly during the early morning of April 7, 2020. She was born on October 27, 1924, and lead a long productive life of some 95 years. She was a loving and generous person who was August Bush III's administrative assistant for over 30 years. She worked at Grant's Farm for the tour manager prior to taking the secretarial position for Mr. Bush downtown. She loved her job and was reluctant to retire. After retiring and her husband Henry passed, she sold their Sappington, Mo. home and built a lakeside home in Hillsboro in the Raintree Plantation development. Her sister, Marion, and brother-in-law, Joe, lived next door and they got together almost daily. Until her physical health deteriorated she was active and frequently got together with family. After her daughter, Toni Albrecht retired, she came to live with her and take care of her as her physical health deteriorated. Her daughter and son, Jerry, selected Delmar Gardens as the nursing home where Myrtle resided for the remainder of her life. She was a breast cancer survivor. She, her husband, sister, and sister's husband, enjoyed cruising together before Henry, died. She is survived by her son, her two granddaughters, Susan and Karen, four of her great-grandchildren and her sister-in-law Amelia Gnau. She was preceded in death by her husband, brother, sister, daughter and daughter's son, John.
