“ I am glad to have had the pleasure of knowing the woman who played such a pivotal role in shaping the life of my future wife. The kids loved singing songs with Grandma "Ancy" on FaceTime and luckily they got to meet you in person too. You will be missed but never forgotten.

“ Meemaw Nancy. Always so beautiful with a big wide eyed smile. She has given us so many laughs, memories, pictures and videos that we will cherish forever. I'm so thankful I got her great cheek bones, skin tone, foul mouth and sassy pants. I always hated my "curly" toes, but wouldn't trade them for the world now. I'm so thankful she got to meet Kyle, Landon, and Aubrey. She thought Kyle was so handsome and swore she had seen him on the tv. She loved FaceTimeing with the kids and I loved seeing how they made each other smile and laugh. We will always love you Grandma "Ancy"

“ I always looked forward to seeing my grandma Nancy. The second I stepped in the door she would say "My God child are they not feeding you down there in Kansas? Let me make you something to eat." She could put a smile on anyone's face and I'll miss her greatly. I'm glad Darian could meet her. I'll always regret not being able to spend enough time with her. I love you grandma Nancy, thank you for always being such a warm and loving person.

I didn't know Nancy, but I know his son. He is a caring and big-hearted person, so I know she had to be a wonderful mother to raise such a great son. Darin and is family are in my thoughts and prayers.

Thank you Angie I have loved spending time with Lynn she is so sweet and she always makes a point to ask the CNA's name and then thanks them every time they do something for her calling them by name. In the evenings I had been making sure her and Mom were both tucked in for the night. I told her i will try to pop in to see her from time to time (evening). I got tickled with her and mom one evening I was sitting between them and asked if they had been to dinner, Mom asked Lynn if she had gone to dinner and Lynn said I don't know if you went, did I ? I told them I was going to get them badges with went to dinner one side and didn't go on the other so they could flip them back and forth. I loved to make them laugh and smile.

“ I love you meemaw! I will never forget the day we were going to Price Chopper and I asked you what was hanging out of your pants and you pulled it out and it was your underwear and we laughed and laughed. I will cherish the days that you babysat us and the nights spent on a pallet at your bedside because I was too scared to sleep by myself. And all the mornings you woke us up singing along to Patsy Cline or Ann Murray while vacuuming. Lets not forget the countless trips for lottery and then having to hurry back so that you didn't miss your soaps. You taught us the important of making sure our hair never looked raggedy. I will miss all the phone calls and voicemail's that you would leave. I love you more than anything and will miss you every second of every day until we are reunited again. I am very grateful for that last conversation that I got to have with you. I LOVE YOU!!!

My deepest condolences to Bob, Angie, Birdie, Bobby and Darin. I loved hanging out with your family and Nancy was always so good to me. I remember playing UNO at Nancy's house with the family and had so much fun watching you all argue with eachother but it was in such a fun way. Nancy could really make me laugh, and she wasn't even trying to! She was a very unique and special person and I will always remember her.
