This is so very sad. I've known Nancy for about 41 years. I had talked with her just before she ended up in the hospital. We laughed, talked about old times. It was like we picked up where we left off years ago. We didn't get to see other as planned but I will forever cherish the conversation we had. She was such a nice person that loved her family dearly. May you rest in peace Nancy. Love, Corinne
