“ Hollie, I am so sad to hear about your brother passing. I love to see the pictures of your family you have in your office. I do believe God has a plan for all of us, most of the time we don't and won't understand his plans, but must believe in the plan. I will pray for your family and that sweet baby boy! I know you will tell him all about his daddy as he grows up. Kim

“ I found it hard to find the right words to say today seeing Jennifer and Jeanne. Jennifer, I'm so glad I took the opportunity to substitute for him last week and I sincerely hope that your anniversary was one that you'll treasure forever. Jeanne, as a new father I simply can't imagine losing a child, my most deep condolences go out to you. I pray that God will grant your families understanding and peace and that you two especially will come to rest in the knowledge that our God's ways are sovereign. Romans 8:28 says it best; trust in His ways.

“ I am very saddend and shocked to hear about Mr. Allen's passing. He was a great teacher, friend and mentor. I was one of the lucky ones that got to spend half my time at Ranken with him as my teacher. So many of the Ranken students from here on out will be missing a key point in learning with his passing. He was a big part of making sure that I will go far in my career field. He always made things real world and fun in class. I am saddend for his wife, son and families loss. My thoughts and prayers go out to you. Mr. Allen will always be with you and all the students he taught.

“ Prayers and Condolences to the family and Friends. My fiancé is in his class and this has really saddened us. I enjoyed the stories I have heard of Nate. Sounded like he was a cool person. I pray that God wraps this family tightly in his arms and helps them to heal. If these pictures are recent, it looks like his son is just a bit older than my youngest and I could never imagine going thru this. I will continue to pray for your family.

“ So sorry for your wife and son to be without you. I just met you as my instructor this semester Thank you for being you!! I can only imagine the loss they feel for you cause it has been difficult for me. I lost my brother this time 9 years ago in a crash your sarcasm and humor was almost identical to his,so that drew me to you it filled a void I missed. I didn't hear of your accident till I got to class tonight I could not believe what I heard. I was excited about class tonight cause I couldn't wait to tell you about the truck I bought over the weekend a 67 Chevy (you would have approved.)

“ It is very sad when God takes the best of us. There was something so very special about Nathan. When you met him you wanted to be his friend. When you needed him he was always gladly there. Nathan was brilliant with cars and had an never ending thirst for knowledge. His eyes would truly light up when he spoke of his wife or son. It always warmed my heart to see it. Simply put: Nathan was a "GOOD MAN" in a time that good men are harder and harder to find. God took the best of us last weekend but left behind a million memories for us to cherish and a great example of what a good person looks like. Nathan made me better by just knowing him. I hope that God likes to talk about making cars go fast in heaven because he's going to get an earful now.

“ Dear Friends and Family, My deepest sympathies are with you. We have suffered a great loss. I was fortunate enough to be a student of Mr. Allen's for most of my time at Ranken. He has impacted my life and many others a great deal and I am very thankful. I'll forever remember his words as I am facing challenges and thanks to him I will "figure it out!"

“ I was so shocked to hear that such a great teacher has been taken before his time to teach all that he knows and to teach others of what he knows. I send my condolences to your family. I only knew him for a few months. But he taught me so much in that time frame. My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family.

“ My sweet Jennifer, Your Mom gave me this news this morning, and I cannot say enough how sorry I am. I can see from these photos how much Nathan loved you and your precious son. As Christians, we do know he is in a Heavenly place. As loved ones and friends, it's just so difficult to understand "why". I know you have loving family and friends; lean on them and trust that you will continue to take baby steps forward during this tragic time. God bless you all, Janet(Pace)Lane, Mehlville, MO

“ Hi Nathan. This is your second cousin Jesse. I'm so sorry this happened, but I'm so proud of you for getting your life on track and doing what you loved. I can tell from the photo of you and Clint that your son really looks up to you and loves you dearly, and so do all your family and friends. I will always have fond memories of you and Hollie going on the toy fire truck and playing board games with me and my brother Will. With the number of people you have that care for and love you, I'm sure there are enough special memories of you so that you are never forgotten. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your loved ones. Love, Jesse

“ Hi Nathan you don't know me but I was traveling on the river road with some friends just seconds behind you. We pulled over to help and I along with others were right by your side praying to God to spare your life. Even though he didn't I am not mad because God had other plans for you. I am saddened as I read your obit today and see that you left behind a wife and child as well as many other family members. I have never experienced this type of situation and these last few days have been hard for me as all I can picture is you. It has made me realize that this is just our temporary home and when God wants his children home he comes calling. We must be ready and willing to go at all times-as we don't know the moment God will call us home for eternity. I am happy that God put me there when he did so I could pray for you. I hope our prayers gave you peace, & just know that you were not alone. I pray for comfort for your family at this difficult time.
