

Norma Lee Miller

October 23, 1941 - December 9, 2025

Norma Lee Miller (née AuBuchon), of Hillsboro, Missouri, passed away peacefully on December 9, 2025. Born on October 23, 1941, in Bonne Terre, Missouri, she was the beloved daughter of Andrew and Rose AuBuchon.

Norma devoted her life to education, touching countless young lives through her many years as a dedicated teacher. Her gentle spirit, patience, and genuine compassion left an enduring impression on students and colleagues alike.

Norma was a woman of many talents and passions. She loved quilting and cross-stitching, creating beautiful pieces that will be treasured for generations. She also enjoyed traveling, playing cards, bowling and golfing, activities she shared with friends and family throughout her life. One of her most heartfelt gifts was crafting baptismal gowns, a labor of love that brought joy and meaning to many families. Her creativity, steady hands, and generous spirit were evident in everything she made.

She is survived by her loving husband, Frank Miller; her two children, Rusty (Angelica) Miller and Amy Miller; and her cherished grandchildren, Ethan Miller and Ayden Miller. She is also survived by her sister, Therese AuBuchon, who remained a close and constant presence throughout her life. Norma is also survived by her niece, Heidi (Lee) Schell, and their children, Carter and Korbin.

Norma will be remembered for her kindness, her dedication to prayer, her quiet strength, and her unwavering love for her family. Her warmth and grace enriched the lives of all who knew her, and her legacy will live on in the hearts of those she touched.
