“ I, Carol A. Walter, will miss this person very much. Talked a lot on the phone about how much rain we got, birds coming & going, going to visit & take the coffee that I would get while traveling, and giving her my Leader newspapers to keep up to date on local things. If I understand things correctly, she is my first cousin & I am her second cousin. She was so thankful that my mother let her live in the city with us so she could get a job. This is also how she met her husband James Parker. She was only 11 yrs. older than myself. Now it will hard not to call and tell her about our out of town travels. She had as close to a perfect life as is possible. She lived alone with her pet until the very end, never lived in a nursing home. She was something!!
