“ I worked at Cedar Hill Drug for 17+ years and always enjoyed talking to Norm about all sorts of topics, especially the blues theme. Shirley is just as adorable as she can be. The last time I spoke to Norm was him and I chuckling. Shirley has come to the pharmacy and mentioned that he was out in the car, so I asked if I could go say hello. I slid out to the car and just stood there grinning, Norm grinning, until finally he said, "ok, I give who are you". We just laughed!! I chatted with him and hugged him. That's the way I want to remember him. RIP, Norm. Thanks for the smiles. ❤️ Sandy

“ I was a member of the St. Martin UCC choir when Norm came in to lead us several years ago. His joy with making music was always apparent, and he patiently handled our amateur angst while trying to elevate the music. Our local world of music will miss his song. Godspeed and RIP, Norm.
